Moving Image Announces Curatorial Advisory Committee for New York 2012 and New Partnership with The Armory Show

We are very pleased to announce that Moving Image: Contemporary Video Art Fair will return to the Waterfront Tunnel in New York March 8-11, 2012.

Moving Image has been conceived to offer a viewing experience with the excitement and vitality of a fair, while allowing moving-image-based artworks to be understood and appreciated on their own terms. The newly formed Moving Image Curatorial Advisory Committee for New York 2012 is inviting a selection of international commercial galleries and non-profit institutions to present single-channel videos, single-channel projections, video sculptures, and other larger video installations.

Curatorial Advisory Committee for Moving Image New York 2012:

- Viktor Misiano, Independent Curator and Critic, Chief-Editor, Moscow Art Magazine (Moscow/Ceglie-Messapica, Italy)
- Elizabeth Neilson, Director, Zabudowicz Collection (London)
- Berta Sichel, Curator-at-large at the Museo Nacional Centro de Arte Reina Sofia, independent curator and art writer (Madrid/Berlin)
- Stephanie Roach, Director, The FLAG Art Foundation (New York)
- Dr. Stephan Urbaschek, Independent Curator (Munich)

Moving Image is also delighted to announce a unique partnership with New York City's premier contemporary art fair, The Armory Show. Moving Image will curate the inaugural edition of 'Armory Film' a series featuring an international selection of leading contemporary video and experimental films. Screenings will take place during the course of the fair and will be shown in the dedicated Media Lounge on Pier 94.
